

Future Simple (will)

CEFR A2

Lesson Pack · summary, worksheet & answer key

Quick answer

Use 'will' + base verb for the future when you decide, predict or promise. Use it for:

- 1 Instant decisions — I'll help you.
- 2 Predictions and opinions — It will rain later.
- 3 Promises and offers — I'll call you tonight.

For plans you decided before now, use 'be going to' instead (I'm going to study tonight).
