

Present Continuous for the Future

CEFR B1

Lesson Pack · summary, worksheet & answer key

Quick answer

Use the present continuous (am/is/are + -ing) for fixed future arrangements. Use it for:

- 1 Plans with a time or place, arranged with others — I'm meeting Sara at six.
- 2 Definite arrangements in your diary — We're flying to Rome on Friday.

Use it when the plan is fixed. For decisions made now or predictions, use 'will'; for timetables, use the present simple.
