

Already, Yet, Just & Still

CEFR B1

Lesson Pack · summary, worksheet & answer key

Quick answer

Four adverbs that fine-tune the present perfect (and other tenses):

- 1 already — sooner than expected, positives (I've already done it).
- 2 yet — until now, negatives & questions, at the end (not yet; ...yet?).
- 3 just — a moment ago, positives (I've just arrived).
- 4 still — continuing/surprising, before the verb (I still haven't packed).

Position matters: already/just go mid-sentence; yet goes at the end; still goes before the main verb (or 'haven't').

At a glance

Adverb	Meaning	Position	Example
already	sooner than expected (positive)	before the main verb	I've already finished.
yet	up to now (negative/question)	end of sentence	Have you finished yet ?
just	a very short time ago (positive)	before the main verb	She's just left.
still	continuing (often surprise)	before the verb / 'haven't'	I still haven't heard.

Learning objectives

- Can use already, yet, just and still with the present perfect (CEFR B1).
- Can place each adverb correctly in the sentence.

Correct answers with explanations · for the teacher

1. A. yet — Questions use 'yet' at the end: 'finished yet?'
2. A. already — A positive with 'sooner than expected' takes 'already'.
3. A. just — A very short time ago takes 'just': 'has just started'.
4. A. still — 'Still' before 'hasn't' stresses it continues: 'she still hasn't got up'.
5. A. it yet — 'Yet' goes at the end: 'I haven't seen it yet'.
6. A. just — 'Just' — a moment ago: 'I've just had some'.
7. A. yet — A question takes 'yet' at the end: 'Are we there yet?'
8. A. still — 'Still working' = the action continues.
9. A. I've already finished my report. — A positive takes 'already' mid-sentence: 'already finished'.
10. A. yet — 'Yet' is for negatives/questions, at the end.
